

4. Resident will not seek to hold the Cooperative, its Board of Directors, employees, representatives and agents responsible for any claims, liability, cost or expense, including, without limitation, for physical or emotional injury or damage to Resident, Resident's children or Resident's children's property, or Resident's agent or representative or Resident's guests or Invitees, loss or damage to property, and attorneys' fees in connection with any claims of injury, loss or damage related to the use of the Playroom. Resident knowingly waives any such claims and rights in exchange for, and as an inducement for the Cooperative's allowing access and use of the Playroom.

5. If Resident should become aware of any contagious disease or condition, including, but not limited to lice, chicken pox, or measles, and Resident knows or has reason to believe that their child/children or Invitees have contracted such a disease/condition, Resident and all of the Resident's children will immediately refrain from using the Playroom until the period where risk of exposure to others expires.

6. Resident understands and acknowledges that the privilege of using the Playroom is limited and that the Playroom will be closed to Residents, from time to time in the Cooperative's discretion without notice. When the Playroom is closed, Resident shall not use or access the Playroom.

7. All furniture, toys, books, etc., are the property of the Cooperative and may not be removed from the Playroom.

8. The Cooperative may terminate Resident's privilege of using the Playroom for any reason at any time and may in the Cooperative's discretion reconsider any such termination decision for any reason at any time.
